Established in 1994, Irish Yogurts is privately-owned by Diarmuid O' Sullivan and Mary Daly.

Based in Clonakilty, County Cork it employs over 160 people in a state-of-the-art production facility which opened in 2016. This new facility provides a highly flexible manufacturing process to suit all yogurt categories, volumes and customers.

Irish Yogurts produces its range using churn-style technology, which is unique to the company. This technology allows the product to be thick and creamy without the addition of stabilisers or gelatins.

Irish Yogurts is a verified member of Origin Green and is BRC A Grade certified.

Why Us

Irish Yogurts is a family-run company in the heart of West Cork, an area full of thriving food businesses. Its emphasis is on tradition and quality, and it supports the community by sourcing all its milk and cream locally.
